

TotalEnergies in the USA: Pioneering Progress

1957

Creation of American Petrofina

1968

First styrene production line in Carville, Louisiana

1973

Acquires the Port Arthur Refinery in Texas

1984

Acquires the La Porte Polypropylene plant in Texas

2011

Majority stake in California-based SunPower

2004

Entry into U.S. LNG at Sabine Pass, Louisiana

2003

TotalFinaElf changes name to Total

2000

Totalfina and Elf Acquitaine merge to create TotalFinaElf

1986

Acquires Hutchinson, a leader in rubber-based solutions for the automotive and aerospace industries

2012

North Platte discovery, deep offshore U.S. Gulf Coast

2016

- Acquires Saft, a leading battery company
- Takes operatorship of Barnett Shale gas assets in Texas

2017

First U.S. LNG export from Sabine Pass, Louisiana

2018

- Acquires Engie LNG assets
- Investment in Clean Energy biomethane

2021

- Total becomes TotalEnergies
- Launches first biogas unit in Texas with Clean Energy
- Partners with 174 Global Power to develop 1.6 GW of solar and energy storage projects

2020

First U.S. plastic recycling agreement with Pure Cycle

2019

First LNG export from Cameron LNG, Louisiana

2022

- Acquires 50% of Clearway Energy the 5th largest U.S. renewable energy player
- Acquires SunPower's Distributed Generation business, ENBW North America offshore wind, and Core Solar businesses
- Wins maritime leases in the New York Bight and the Carolinas to develop offshore wind
- Start-up of Baystar ethane cracker at TotalEnergies' Port Arthur Platform in Texas

2023

- Final investment decision on Rio Grande LNG, Texas
- Baystar Polyethylene unit start-up at Bayport, Texas
- Acquires 1.5 GW of flexible generation capacity near Houston and Dallas
- Myrtle utility-scale solar farm starts production in Texas

2025

- Ballymore field first oil, U.S. Gulf Coast
- Rio Grande 1.5 Mtpa LNG offtake agreement for Train 4
- Utility-scale start-ups Hill Solar 1 in Texas and Clinton Solar in Ohio
- Acquires interest in 40 offshore exploration blocks
- Begins production of sustainability certified polystyrene in Carville, Louisiana

2024

- Converts plastic waste feedstock into circular polymers at La Porte Texas plant
- Acquires Talos Low Carbon Capture Solutions
- TotalEnergies celebrates its 100th anniversary
- Acquires two shale gas plays in Texas
- Anchor field first oil, offshore U.S. Gulf Coast